

LESSON 2

1. Why am I talking with you?

-To tell you the most important message in the world.

2. Whose message is the most important message in the world?

-God's message.

3. Why is God's message the most important message in the world?

-Because only God has never lied.

-Because only God has always told the truth.

4. Where is God's message?

-God's message is in God's Book.

5. What is the name of God's Book?

-The name of God's Book is the Bible.

6. How did God's message get into God's Book?

-A long time ago, God chose some men, and put His Words into these men's minds.

-Then, these men wrote God's Words into God's Book.

7. Did these men write their own words in God's Book?

-No.

-These men whom God chose wrote God's Words exactly as God told them.

8. Did these men live and write God's Words at the same time?

-No.

9. How many years did it take to write all of God's Words?

-1,600 years.

10. Who were these men whom God chose to write His Words?

-The men whom God chose to write His Words were Jews and a Greek man.

11. In what language did these men write God's Words?

-In the Jewish and Greek languages.

12. How many of God's Words in God's Book are true?

-All of them.

13. Why are all of God's Words in God's Book true?

-Because God never lies.

-Because God only tells the truth.

-What are the first words that God has written in His Book?

-The first words that God has written in His Book are these:

-“In the beginning.”

-Why are God's first words, “In the beginning”?

-Because God wants us to know that there was a beginning to all things.

-Does everything that we can see have a beginning?

-Yes.

-Does everything that we cannot see have a beginning?

-Yes.

-What was life like before the beginning?

-Before the beginning, were there any rivers or lakes?

-No.

-Before the beginning, were there any mountains or trees?

-No.

-Before the beginning, were there a sun, moon, or stars?

-No.

-Before the beginning, were there animals or birds?

-No.

-Before the beginning, was there an earth or sky?

-No.

-If there were none of these before the beginning, do you think that there were people before the beginning?

-No.

-If there were no lakes, and trees, and sun, and sky, and earth before the beginning, would people be able to live?

-No.

-Before the beginning, were there white or black people?

-No.

-Before the beginning, were there spirits?

-No.

-Before the beginning, there was nothing.

-Let us read again God's first words in His Book:

-“In the beginning, God.”

-What do the first words of God say?

-The first words of God say that before the beginning, there was God alone.

-Who was the only One living before the beginning?

-God.

-Because only God lived before the beginning, who is greater than everything?

-God.

-God is greater than the rivers and lakes.

-Why?
-Because God alone lived before the beginning.

-God is greater than the mountains and trees.
-Why?
-Because God alone lived before the beginning.

-God is greater than the sun, moon, and stars.
-Why?
-Because God alone lived before the beginning.

-God is greater than the earth and sky.
-Why?
-Because God alone lived before the beginning.

-God is greater than all the people in the world.
-Why?
-Because God alone lived before the beginning.

-God is greater than all of the spirits in the world.
-Why?
-Because God alone lived before the beginning.

-Because God alone lived before the beginning, who alone can tell us about the beginning?
-God.

-Why are people not able to tell us about the beginning?
-Because there were no people yet.

-Why are the spirits not able to tell us about the beginning?
-Because there were no spirits yet.

-When did God begin?

-God has no beginning.
-God has always lived.
-God is eternal.

-Some people think someone gave birth to God.

-Did someone give birth to God?
-No.
-God is simply eternal.

-Some people think God gave birth to Himself.

-Did God give birth to God?
-No.
-God is simply eternal.

-Some people think that someone made God.

-Did someone make God?
-No.
-God is simply eternal.

-Some people think that God made Himself.

-Did God make God?

-No.

-God is simply eternal.

-Was there ever a time when God did not exist?

-No.

-God has always been alive.

-God will always be alive

-God has always existed.

-There was never a time when God did not exist.

-God can never die.

-God can never be hungry.

-God can never be thirsty.

-People need food and water to live. What does God need to live?

-God does not need anything to live.

-How does God live?

-By His own power.

-Why does God not need the earth to walk on?

-Because God lives by His own power.

-Why does God not need the sun to see?

-Because God lives by His own power.

-Why does God not need food to eat?

-Because God lives by His own power.

-Why does God not need water to drink?

-Because God lives by His own power.

-Are you able to live without the earth or the sun?

-No, but God can.

-Are you able to live without food or water?

-No, but God can.

-God is not like people.

-God is not like the animals.

-God is not like the spirits.

-Because God alone lived before the beginning, God does not need anything.

-Who is greater than the sun, the moon, and the stars?

-God.

-Who is greater than the sky and the earth?

-God.

-Who is greater than all people and all spirits?

-God.

-There is no thing greater than God.

-There is no one greater than God.
